SARAH'S COMMENTS:-

HELLO EVERYONE

Isn't it one of the loviest times of the Year. Easter is here. The trees have decided that there will be no more growth But they will give us colours that will lift enjoyment of living in our beautiful country.

Its the Season for chocolate / bunnies / chickens / and spicey buns with crosses on top with a message of Hope and Togetherness. Love can build such wonderful bridges and its a common word in every language.

Three cheers for dolphins

So Sir Russell Coutts is aggrieved we have put the welfare of our precious wildlife ahead of his boat race.

I recall that after he led our America's Cup race to glory and accepted a knighthood from a delighted nation, it suited him to put his own financial and career options first by then choosing to join a rival syndicate.

So from me it's bye bye Russell and three cheers for the dolphins.
