SNIPPETS FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the New Year at 60s Up Movement.

I am looking forward to being with you this year with a varied and enjoyable programme for our monthly meetings. I hope you will get along to the mid meeting morning teas in Levin, organized by Pam Halliday and enjoy each other's company over a coffee. I have heard that several members have sold their homes over the holidays, and I ask them to advise Sue (Treasurer) of their changed details. Also, it is with sadness that I advise that our previous Secretary/Treasurer Jenny Ingham passed before Christmas. Our Life Member Nancy Drummond and past committee member Dorothy Lynch both passed away this month. I am looking at Life Membership for 2025. If you consider that you are eligible to be considered for Life Membership, please talk to me. As we have no records of the Branch over the past 25 years, your input is very important I hope you have a happy time making new friends this year Have a wonderful 2025, and lets enjoy each other with kindness, tolerance and love.

SOCIAL OUTINGS

SOCIAL MORNING TEA:

Hi all,
Some of you may not know but I am now the person who organises our morning teas. I am still on holiday at the moment so have booked us in for Salt and Pepper on 20th Feb at 10am and will try to find some new places when i get back at the end of the month. Any suggestions feel free to let me know either via the Facebook page, email:

Thehallidays@xtra.co.nz or message or phone me on 0211129819

Morning teas are for anyone who wants to come along and have a drink, something to eat, or just a good old natter. We usually get about 10 to 15 people so this usually leads to a varied conversation and many laughs. No need to book anything in, just turn up. The venue changes each month but is always the 3rd Thursday of the month at 10am. We look forward to seeing you there.

Pam
