Keep those chip packets coming! Just drop them by the door when you sign in, and I'll take care of getting them to the Albany Library. No need to wash them—my granddaughters love that task whenever they stop by.

As we close out another wonderful year, a big thankyou to Fiona, our President, and to every one of our dedicated committee members who have worked tirelessly behind the scenes throughout the year. A special thank you also goes to our volunteers — those who keep the kitchen running, set up the hall before our meetings, greet members at the door, and support our gatherings in countless ways. From the donation table and raffles to bus trips and activities, your efforts make our community vibrant and welcoming.

We couldn't do it without you — thank you for everything you contribute!

& Happy New Year
