Be a Friend - Bring a Friend

Is winter on the way out? It's lighter earlier in the morning and it gets dark later at night. But the other week, I had three visits from Jack Frost who turned my garden white and it was c-o-l-d! So, I hope the colds and flu have kept away and you are all well.

Oh great! My daffodils are coming out. But around my street we have these trees with redish blossoms and the tuis are going mad over them.

Which brings me to this August's meeting. We're having a speaker from Tiritiri Matangi so we will be able to learn about the birds there and also the island. My family love to visit there and I am sure the talk will be interesting and entertaining.

August 4 Outing

As we opted not to have a bus trip for August, we gathered at the Birkenhead RSA for lunch instead. The lunch was enjoyable as usual, and "entertainment" was provided by RSA members dancing.
